The property licence and conditions do not imply or grant by inference or otherwise any approval or permission for any other purposes including those for Building Control, Development Control and under The Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005. Conversely compliance with any of those requirements does not confer or imply compliance with the requirements of the Housing Act 2004 including property licensing.

Any HMO for more than six people will also require planning permission. Please contact the planning team to clarify what planning permissions are already in place for the property and advice on the process. Please note that unlawful HMO's may be subject to planning enforcement action. The Council do have powers of enforcement against breaches of planning control and that, upon summary conviction, continued failure to meet the Council's enforcement requirements could ultimately result in an unlimited fine.

Any requirements relating to the licence and conditions are without prejudice to assessments and appropriate actions including enforcement actions under the Housing Act 2004. This includes actions to deal with category 1 and category 2 hazards as may be identified under Housing Health and Safety Rating System (HHSRS) and does not preclude such action.
